JOHNSON RETAINS HEAVY-WEIGHT TITLE

DEFEATS FRANK MORAN IN TWENTY ROUND CONTEST ON POINTS

Champion's Superior Skill and Upper-cutting Wears Down His Opponent—Pittsburgh Youth Is Unable to Block Johnson's Terrible Blows.

VELODROME D'HIVER, Paris, June 27.—Jack Johnson, the heavy-weight champion fighter, tonight returned the title by defeating Frank Moran of Pittsburgh in a twenty-round contest on points. There was plenty of hard hitting on the part of Johnson, but not a single knockdown or anything that looked like a finishing blow. Moran's face was bleeding from cuts on the nose and under the left eye; Johnson showed no marks.

Towards the end of the fight the crowd jeered a good deal at some of the tactics of Moran who hung frequently on Johnson to save himself. When the gong rang Referee Carpenter immediately announced Johnson as the winner.

Moran was game and stubborn. He did most of the leading and although disapproval was shown of some of his tactics toward the end he made many friends. Johnson's superior skill and successive upper-cutting wore down his opponent and won the fight which at times seemed rather amateurish.

Terrific uppers on which Johnson had relied in many of his previous battles were again brought into play on his young adversary who was unable effectively to block them. They were repeatedly sent to Moran's jaw when he least expected them and several times with such force that the Pittsburgher was sent wobbling. Towards the middle of the contest it appeared as if Moran would not last the twenty rounds but he showed courage and kept driving. Although he landed a number of times on the negro his blows lacked force and were comparatively ineffective. Now and then he tried to land hard on his adversary and in so doing swung wildly through space, Johnson being several feet away. Moran took his punishment well and during parts of rounds, the negro toyed with him when he saw that he could so without danger.

Towards the end Johnson had the Pittsburgher absolutely at his mercy. Moran apparently feared he would be finished and clung to Johnson's body for support, trying at the same time to land but without success. It was here that unfavorable comment was made. The tactics of Johnson on several occasions also brought a caution from the referee as well as a storm of jeers from the crowd. Many of the French spectators, who seemingly did not understand the fine points of boxing, voiced their objection to inflicting but cheered any resounding harmless whacks.

Among the crowd in the great amphitheater were several hundred women in handsome gowns, applauding. Some of the women were titled personages of note.

Johnson's white wife occupied a prominent position wearing as many diamonds as most of the great ladies. She cried out shrilly from time to time:

"Hit him daddy! Come along pop! Now then Jack, let him have another!"

Gloved hands joined in the applause that rang through the building as the two gladiators struggled for the supremacy.

The Fight By Rounds.
Johnson entered the ring at 10:20 a. m. amid cheering. A great shout went up as Moran followed. The crowd gave Moran a better hand than Johnson. Georges Carpentier, the French champion, who is to referee the fight was given an ovation.

Time was given at 10:33. The opening and landed first to the stomach and head. Johnson succeeded in landing on Moran's jaw. They mixed it hard, Johnson landing on the Pittsburgher's stomach.

ROUND TWO—Moran forced the fighting, but Johnson managed to get some hard uppercuts to Moran's jaw. Moran in return landed hard on Johnson's head. Johnson sent a light hook to Moran's cheek. Vienne, the chief manager of the fight, says the rules are those of the International Boxing Federation which do not allow holding and are a slight modification of the Queensbury rules.

ROUND THREE—Johnson gave Moran several terrific uppercuts to the jaw while Moran responded with several jolts to the negro's stomach. Johnson landed a hard jolt on Moran's eye and followed with hard knocks on the body. Johnson crowded Moran who stumbled against the ropes as time was called.

ROUND FOUR—Johnson drew first blood with a right to Moran's nose. The negro smiled confidently as he met Moran's attack. Both led at the same time, each landing on the other's head without harm. Johnson landed on Moran's face as the gong sounded.

ROUND FIVE—Johnson appeared fresher and confident as the round began. Moran landed hard on Johnson's jaw and the crowd cheered. Johnson retaliated with several blows to the body. Moran blocked several hard uppercuts and landed lightly on the negro's solar plexus which amused the crowd.

SPOONING IS A CRIME, GIRLS.
Chicago, June 27.—"Spooning is a crime against womanhood," John Alexander told 500 young women attending the Sunday school convention. "Pass the word along to girls who love to 'spoon' that it is the most degrading thing they can do."

ROOSEVELT MAKES PLANS TO CONDUCT CAMPAIGN

ON ACCOUNT OF ILL-HEALTH COL- ONEL WILL MOVE TO SAGAMORE HILL

Plans to Conduct Fall Campaign, So Far as Possible, From This Place —Constant Interviews Great Strain
On His Health—Physician Advises Long Rest.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 27.—After his physician's decree that he must either take a long rest or incur the danger of permanent ill health, Theodore Roosevelt today made plans to conduct the fall campaign, so far as possible, from Sagamore Hill. John McGrath, his secretary, engaged a cottage in the village and expects to move here from New York on Monday. Another decision which Col. Roosevelt reached was to stop the steady procession of visitors to Sagamore Hill. He was told that his constant interviews with political leaders from all parts of the country were too much of a strain on him and that for the next few weeks, at least, he should see as few persons as possible. "Beginning the next week," he said, "I will see no one at Sagamore Hill except by appointment."

Col. Roosevelt was asked whether the lead of the campaign would be shifted to another's shoulders. He said that Representative Hinebaugh, chairman of the Progressive congressional committee, would have charge of the congressional campaign and that in each state chairman and national committeemen would be in charge. He nevertheless expects to keep in close touch with the more prominent leaders.

Senator Clapp of Minnesota came to Oyster Bay today. He told Col. Roosevelt that in Minnesota, as elsewhere in the middle west, the Progressive party outlook was hopeful.

MERCHANTS OF BUTTE PREPARED FOR TROUBLE

Citizens Prepared to Protect Themselves in Case of Further Rioting Incident to Troubles Among Miners.

BUTTE, Mont., June 27.—Merchants of Butte have prepared to protect themselves in case of further rioting incident to troubles among the miners here. One of the largest stores it was learned tonight has had armed guards in its building since the recent attack on the miners' hall in which one man was shot to death. It was stated on good authority tonight that seven "gunmen" of Butte went last night to Anaconda with the avowed intention of killing President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners who was to have spoken there. President Moyer called off the Anacondas. No immediate prospect of settlement of the troubles that split the Dubuque local of the Western Federation into factions is indicated. President Moyer still is in Helena. Butte outwardly was quiet today.

The inquest into the death of Ernest Noy, slain in Tuesday night's rioting was adjourned today to July 6th.

FIRE DESTROYS LARGE QUANTITY OF WHEAT SHOCKS

Wiley Todd Has Field of Wheat Set on Fire From a Burning Log—Flow Around Field to Save Grain.

Fire which caught in a wheat field belonging to Wiley Todd residing west of the city, consumed 153 shocks of wheat and threatened to destroy the entire twenty acres of grain. The fire originated from a log in the field, which it is thought someone had set on fire. Mr. Todd was in Jacksonville at the time and when he arrived home several of his neighbors including Walter Duckwall, who was blowing in a nearby field, Charles Gibbs, Wilbur Gibbs, Roy Goody and Warren Honley were fighting the flames. Plovers were brought into use and a furrow made in advance of the flames which checked their progress and saved about the thirds of the twenty acres. Mr. Todd had a splendid field of grain so that his loss will amount to a great deal.

WILL BE NO DEFICIT IN GOVERNMENT FINANCES

DEMOCRATIC LEADER ASSERTS ANY SUCH PREDICTION IS A DREAM

Underwood Announces That the Total
Receipts of the Government
For Fiscal Year Ending Tuesday
Will Aggregate $773,000,000—
Other News of Official Washington.

SATURDAY IN CONGRESS.

Met at noon.
The naval bill finally was passed and debate resumed on the rivers and harbors bill. Many senators presented petitions for woman suffrage. Adjourned at 5:02 p. m., until noon Monday.

Met at 10:30 a. m.
Debate was resumed on the conference report on the legislative bill.

Conference report on the sundry civil bill was discussed. The conference report on the naval bill was adopted. Conference report on diplomatic bill was submitted.

Majority Leader Underwood announced he proposed to maintain a quorum in the house next week to expedite appropriation bill.

Adjourned at 4:20 p. m., until noon Sunday for eulogies on Representative Koenig of Maryland.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Democratic Leader Underwood told the house today there would be no deficit in government finances and that any prediction of one was a dream, based on wishes springing from political antagonism.

In an analysis of the government's financial situation he announced that the total receipts of the government for the fiscal year ending next Tuesday will aggregate $773,000,000 leaving a surplus of $30,000,000 and with only a half year's operation of the income tax.

Receipts Will Pay Expenses.
Next year he declared, Panama expenditures would practically pass away and the canal receipts would pay running expenses.

Mr. Underwood's speech was in support of the senate amendment to the legislative appropriation bill to increase the treasury fund for collecting the income tax from $1,930,000 to $1,500,000, which the house finally agreed to.

"For next year," he predicted, "we can be assured of collecting more than $100,000,000 from the income tax."

Grants Extension of Time.

Postmaster Burleson today extended his order of October 17th, 1907, prohibiting the mails to John F. Braun and his wife who have been operating under the names of Psychological Healing Institute of Rockford, The Rev. D. R. Schiller, Hulda DeMuth, Della Deimling and Mme. DeMuth Deimling. Braun has served a year in the Leavenworth penitentiary for using the mails to defraud and has operated in Bloomington, Indiana and Greenfield, Ind., and Rockford, Ills. His scheme is based on advertisements offering to heal by telepathy.

PENNSYLVANIAN DRIVEN MAD BY TERRIFIC HEAT

Insane Man Kills One and Injures Several Others With Hatchet Before Being Killed.

Uniontown, Pa., June 27.—After hacking to death Thomas Madros, 42, Alexander Lumar, 35, rushed along a road at Acme, Pa. near here today and seriously injured two other persons with a hatchet before he himself was shot dead. Martin Hope, 76, a civil war veteran was struck between the eyes and cannot recover. His daughter, Mrs. Omer Sutton, 31, is injured seriously. L. A. Morgan pursued Lumar after his attack on Hope and Mrs. Sutton and after a lengthy chase killed him with a bullet through the heart. Lumar is believed to have been driven mad by the heat.

Geneva, Ill., June 27.—A jury for the trial of Anthony Petras, charged with the murder of his sweetheart, Theresa Hollander, in a cemetery at Aurora, Ill., was completed today and the case was adjourned until Monday.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS DESCEND ON CAPITOL

AGAIN SEEK SUPPORT FROM CON- GRESSMEN OF ALL FAITHS

Secretary of State Bryan Takes Refuge in an Elevator From Enthusiastic Suffragist—Women Represented Thirty-eight States.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Women suffragists representing their sisters in thirty-eight states descended on the capitol again today seeking support from congressmen of all political faiths.

"Inevitable as Rising Sun."
Speaker Clark told them that women suffrage was "as inevitable as the rising of tomorrow's sun," and Secretary Bryan, waylaid by an enthusiastic suffragist in one of the capitol's corridors, took refuge in an elevator.

Plead Cause to Marshall and Clark.
Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffrage association, Jane Addams of Chicago and Mrs. Desha Breckinridge of Kentucky, vice presidents, pleaded their cause to both Vice President Marshall and Speaker Clark.

Mrs. Marshall Opposes Movement.
Mrs. Breckinridge is a granddaughter of Henry Clay, and said she hoped the vice president would help the woman suffrage cause. The vice president interrupted.

"I've got to remember my wife," he said, "and I don't want to get separated from her."

This remark was interpreted by the suffragists to mean that Mrs. Marshall is opposed to the movement.

Petition Sent to Senators.

Mrs. Antoinette Funk of Chicago said that the delegates wanted their petitions sent to the senators by messengers. The vice president called pages and ordered the petitions to be distributed.

Demand Is World Wide.

Dr. Shaw told both the vice president and the speaker there was a demand for woman suffrage throughout the United States. She said that since the nation-wide suffrage demonstration on May 2, she had attended the meeting of the international council of women at Rome, representing 7,000,000 women from widely separated countries and that they were all in favor of woman suffrage was presented their every vote was cast in its favor.

Miss Addams pointed out that in Chicago there were municipal questions of importance on which women voted.

Clark Favors Suffrage.
"You are going at this thing in the right way," Speaker Clark told the suffragists. "If you women are going to run the world, I hope you will improve on the efforts of the men. My own judgment is that you can get results quicker through the states."

Will Vote for It in Missouri.
"My own position, and I might as well make that clear to you now, because I have got to do it sometime, is that I think women should vote. Whenever it is submitted in Missouri, I am going to vote for it."

Miss Genevieve Clark, the speaker's daughter, was one of the suffragists in the party.

"Your father came across with his suffrage support," a friend suggested.

"He wouldn't have dared come home if he hadn't," she smilingly replied.

GOV. DUNNE AND STAFF PRESENT AT UNVEILING

Monument Erected By State of Illinois to Men Who Fell at Ken-saw Mountain is Unveiled By Child.

Atlanta, Ga., June 27.—Governor Dunne of Illinois and his staff and a number of prominent citizens from Illinois were among the several thousand persons present today at the unveiling of a monument erected by the state of Illinois to its soldiers who took part in the battle of Kennesaw Mountain in the Civil War.

The monument was unveiled by Sarah Fidelity, 11 years old, grand daughter of W. A. Payton, Danville, Ills., one of the survivors of the battle and a member of the Illinois monument commission.

In a dedicatory address following the unveiling Governor Dunne attacked the use of child labor in the south. The monument stands on a hill three miles from Kennesaw Mountain and four miles south of Marietta. It was on this spot that Col. Dan McCook's brigade, including the hundred and twenty-fifth Illinois infantry regiments fought for six days and nights without relief. The monument, for which an appropriation of $20,000 was made by the Illinois legislature, is 26 feet high and of silver grey Georgia marble. The marble shaft carries a seven foot bronze figure of a soldier at parade rest. On either side are two bronze figures of women, one typifying peace, the other representing Illinois.

CARRANZA'S SECRETARY ISSUES LONG STATEMENT

CHARGES THAT GEN. ANGELES STIR- RED UP TROUBLE IN REBEL RANKS

Claims Differences Between Villa and Carranza Can Be Composed
When Real Causes of Break Become Known—Declares Angeles
Really an Agent of Huerta.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Alfredo Breceda, private secretary of Gen. Carranza, leader of the revolutionist forces in Mexico, issued a statement here tonight charging that Gen. Felipe Angeles had stirred up the recent contention between Carranza and Villa and that Angeles was in reality an agent of Huerta.

Confers With Luis Cabrera.
Breceda's statement, issued after a long conference with Luis Cabrera, one of Gen. Carranza's representatives here, who is earnestly working for participation of the constitutionalist forces in an informal peace conference with delegates to the Niagara Falls mediation, admits a breach in the constitutionalist ranks that probably cannot be healed unless mediation should succeed. The Breceda statement says:

All Due to Felipe Angeles.
"The troubles between Villa and Carranza can be composed when the real causes of the break become known. Villa always had continued being loyal toward Carranza and had it not been for the interference of Felipe Angeles there never would have been any difference. Gen. Angeles was a commander in the federal army. He was sent on a mission to Europe by Huerta; he stayed there until December, 1913; he then asked to join the ranks of the constitutionalist army. He was welcomed by Carranza who appointed him subsecretary of his war department. At the beginning of the military activities against Torreon, yielding to the wishes of Villa, Angeles was sent from Sonora to help Villa in the investment of Torreon."

Change in Villa's Attitude Felt.
"Since the arrival of Angeles near Villa a change in the attitude of the latter was felt, nearly all the acts of Villa meaning disagreement with Carranza. On June 12 Carranza asked Villa to send some reinforcements to Natera, who was at the time investing Zacatecas. Villa, acting under the advice of Angeles, refused to send such reinforcements unless he could take charge of the assault, do as he wished with his own forces. Carranza insisted and Villa, in a fit of anger, tendered his resignation as military commander of the northern division."

Obliged to Accept Resignation.
"Carranza found himself obliged to accept the resignation, but wishing to follow democratic proceedings he convoked the officials who were under Villa's orders that they could choose by themselves their active leader. But officials influenced by Angeles refused to appoint a substitute and agreed to support Villa as their leader and they were thus in an attitude of disobedience towards Carranza."

"Carranza was acquainted with the real causes of the attitude of Villa and consequently he ordered the immediate discharge of Angeles from the position he held."

Mediators Begin to Lose Hope.
Niagara Falls, Ont., June 27.—Some of the principals to the mediation conference here began to lose hope tonight that Gen. Carranza ever would permit his representatives to participate in the proposed informal conferences with the Huerta delegates for the solution of Mexico's internal problems. No word came to any of the mediators today as to Carranza's intentions and skepticism began to manifest itself especially when news despatches from Monterey showed that not only was telegraphic communication with the constitutionalist chief in excellent condition but that he had spent the day in amusements.

Will Not Discuss Big Question.
Monterey, Mexico, June 27.—It was announced unofficially here today that Gen. Carranza's headquarters has not been instructed to discuss with Huerta delegates the question of a provisional government for Mexico. Whatever action along these lines the mediators take, it was understood, will not be accepted by Carranza.

Will Return to His Post.
Mexico City, June 27.—The Mexican government today gave permission for John R. Silliman, vice consul at Saltillo, to return to his post. This was in response to a request made by the Brazilian minister at the instance of the state department at Washington.

SEARCH FOR THREE NEGRO HIGHWAYMEN

NEGROES KILL TWO EMPLOYES OF MISSISSIPPI LUMBER CO.

Highwayman, After Slaying Two and Seriously Wounding a Third Man,
Escapes With Company's Weekly
Payroll of $2,200.

LAUREL, Miss., June 27.—Hundreds of men searched the country tonight near Stevens, Miss., for three negro highwaymen who late today shot and killed two employees of the Gilchrist-Fordney Lumber company, seriously wounded a third and escaped with the company's weekly payroll of $2,200. Those killed were J. V. Simmons and Rees Fitzpatrick, clerks in the office of the lumber company. Wyatt Robinson, another clerk, was wounded by a bullet that shattered his shoulder.

The holdup occurred just outside of Stevens Station, where the three clerks boarded a railway motor car for the company's logging camp six miles away. They had gone but a short distance when they came on an obstruction on the track. When the men alighted the negroes opened fire, killing Fitzpatrick, Simmons, fatally wounded, died a short while afterward. Robinson fell wounded under a sharp fire. Robinson made his way back to Stevens and gave the alarm. A posse was quickly formed and a special train was sent from here with a large party to join in the hunt.

LOCAL MEN WILL OPEN NEW WATER COMPANY THIS WEEK

Have New Process of Purifying
Drinking Water by Electricity—
Product to Be Known as "Electro-Water."

With a process of purifying drinking water with electricity, that has been thoroughly tested, the American Pure Water company of this city expects to open for business July 1.

The process consists of running the water through the electric purifying machine, then through an aerator to a settling tank. The water enters the settling tank from the bottom. All of the impurities of the water go to the bottom of the tank and the pure water rises to the top and flows into a storage tank. As shown by analysis, the process removes all bacteria, disease germs and alkali. Water was taken from the Mauvaister creek, at a point fifty feet below the place where the Church street sewer empties, and samples of the water taken from the city mains when the supply was being pumped from the lake, were purified and samples of the water both before and after being taken through the process were sent to Champaign for analysis by the Illinois Water Survey. In the case of the creek water practically all of the bacteria, germs and alkali were eliminated, and the water taken from the city mains was made free from all bacteria and germs and practically all of the alkali was taken from it when treated. The reports on the analysis were signed by Edward Bartow, director.

Luther Lashmet of this city is the inventor of the process and he has associated with him Carl Richards and Clifford Alves. It is the expectation to incorporate the company later and to establish plants in other towns. The product of the concern will be known as "Electro" water, and the establishment is maintained at the corner of North West and West Court streets, in the Degen building. Mr. Lashmet has a very interesting demonstration in taking ink from water, which he has been showing to a large number of callers. It is his intention later to make a machine adaptable for purifying drinking water in schools and hospitals.

Prominent Chicagoan Dies.

Chicago, June 27.—George Birkhoff, Jr., prominent real estate operator and former member of the Chicago real estate board, died today at his country home near Holland, Mich. He was commissioner general of the Netherlands at the world's fair in 1893 and in appreciation of his services was decorated by the queen. In 1895 the title of Chevalier of the Eiken Kroon was conferred upon him. He had been consul here for the Netherlands since 1886.

PROPERTY DAMAGE ENORMOUS.

Mandan, N. D., June 27.—With partial restoration of telephone service to outlying districts of this section, swept by water from a cloud-burst late last night indications are that property damage will aggregate from $200,000 to $300,000. From four to six miles of rails on the northern Pacific lines, east, west and south of here, are washed out. Sweet prairie Creek west of Mandan, carried several frame bridges against a railway bridge, dislodging it and completely disrupting transportation. An extremely light vote was cast throughout the district. The election comes July 28th.

INCOMPLETE SCHEDULE FILED BY MUNDAY FIRM

ATTORNEYS FOR DEFUNCT LITCHFIELD BANK ASK EXTENSION OF TIME

Desire Thirty Days More in Which to Complete the Schedule—Government Will Investigate Events
Preceding Change of La Salle
National Bank to a State Institution.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., June 27.—Incomplete schedules were filed this afternoon in the United States district court by Charles B. Munday and J. C. Munday, individually and as co-partners, under the firm name of C. B. Munday & Co., of Litchfield. Attorneys for the defunct bank asked the court for an extension of thirty days time in which to complete the schedule.

Two Banks Named in Schedules.
The two banking institutions named in the schedules were the People's Bank of East Alton and the Smithboro Bank of Smithboro. It is thought that the total liabilities of the two institutions will amount of $800,000 with assets running half that amount. Both banks are private institutions. Unsecured loans to the Lorimer banks, William Lorimer and the Munday brothers are said in the schedule to amount to $330,000. The schedules show the Smithboro bank to be in fairly good condition, while the accounts of the Alton institution show, as set forth in the schedule that C. B. Munday loaned to himself and J. C. Munday $165,000 worth of doubtful security. William Lorimer, also, owes the bank $168,000, on open account, according to the schedules.

Think Assets Figured Too High.
Although the assets of the bank are figured to run over $400,000, it is thought that this amount is entirely too high and that the sum cannot be realized. The Litchfield Mill & Elevator company, a Munday concern, is shown to have borrowed $50,000 on an unsecured note.

Compose Much of Securities.
Stocks in the other Lorimer banks, which have been closed, compose a large amount of the securities listed. The two banks owned stock in the Broadway State Bank, LaSalle Street Bank, Calumet Bank and Twelfth-Ashtaband Bank. The Alton bank also endorses the notes of the Lorimer-Gallagher company to the extent of $115,000.

Will Investigate Change.
Chicago, June 27.—Investigation of events preceding the change of LaSalle Street National Bank to a state institution will be the keynote of the government's inquiry into the closed bank's affairs, District Attorney Wilkerson said tonight. Charges have been made to federal officials that good securities were substituted for worthless paper in the vaults of the bank to enable it to pass the last inspection of government examiners. These securities were withdrawn as soon as the examiners left the bank, it is alleged. Before time for another examination the bank forfeited its national charter and became a state institution.

Accountants Continue Work.
Government accountants and two assistant district attorneys continued their work on the books.

Probing Unsecured Loan.
Assistant States Attorney Case sought to learn if an unsecured loan of $168,000 to C. E. Ward, director of the bank and secretary of William Lorimer, when he was in the senate was in reality a loan of the General Securities company of which Ward is president. The loan was made within a month after the securities company was organized with a capital of $25,000. The company handled the stock of Lorimer-Munday banks and other concerns they controlled.

Run on Another State Bank.
Uneasiness caused by the failure of the five Lorimer-Munday banks is believed to be the cause of a run late today on the North Avenue State Bank. By 9 o'clock about $75,000 in small accounts had been withdrawn. Business men in the neighborhood expressed confidence in the institution and endeavored to reassure depositors lined up in front of the paying teller's window.

Not Connected With Lorimer or Munday.
"The bank is not connected in any way with the LaSalle Street Trust & Savings Bank or Lorimer or Munday, but the failure of the downtown bank is wholly responsible for this run," asserted Charles E. Shick, cashier.

BOGGS OF CHAMPAIGN ASSURED OF REPUBLICAN NOMINATION

Franklin H. Boggs Chosen Republican Nominee For Circuit Judge to Succeed the Late Judge Philbrick in Sixth Judicial District.

Decatur, Ills., June 27.—With only a few precincts missing from the six counties, Franklin H. Boggs of Champaign is assured of the Republican nomination for circuit judge in the sixth judicial district to succeed Judge Solon Philbrick who died recently. He defeated Francis M. Shonkwiler of Monticello. Delbert R. Enochs of Champaign is given the Democratic nomination on the face of returns tonight although James L. Hicks of Monticello is running close. Elmer J. Hawkeyer of Monticello had no opposition on the progressive ticket. An extremely light vote was cast throughout the district. The election comes July 28th.

Why Every Town Should Have a Commercial Club.

This question really answers itself, for the reason that where a commercial club exists its value to the community is apparent every hour of the day, and in a town that has no commercial club, its business men need only to compare their progress with the town nearest them that has to note the difference. Concerted effort is now the recognized method of accomplishing anything really worth while. If that were not true, how can the great combinations that are seen on every hand be explained—combinations of capital, combinations of labor, agriculture and everything else?

More Commercial Clubs in Morgan County.

Morgan county would show more progress if all her communities would organize a Commercial club or a Farmers' club and work together for their county's betterment. The business men of Murrayville, Franklin and Waverly have created organizations for the promotion of the best interests of their towns. The Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce wishes them success in their undertakings and hopes to labor with them in various co-operative undertakings. What's good for one is good for all. The old saying, "Every man for himself, or every town for itself, and the devil take the hindmost," is an out of date policy today.

Celebrate the Fourth in Jacksonville.
With the funds which are available the celebration of Independence Day should be noteworthy. Nichols park is an attractive place to spend the entire day. Special accommodations will be provided by the park board for those coming in automobiles or carriages.

A Vote of Thanks.
The officers of the Chamber of Commerce desire to thank all persons who extended courtesies to the visiting merchants attending the Retail Merchants' convention. Especially the automobile owners, who donated the use of their cars for the sightseers.

The Need of Better Pavements.
Our principal paved streets continue to give the city of Jacksonville harmful advertising, for few, if any, city visitors understand that our lack of progress is due to the unsettled franchise question. Gov. Dunne took occasion to comment on the need of some road work being done in the cities as well as in the country. It is regrettable if the city of Jacksonville must continue to suffer from such pavements on streets where travel is the greatest.

A Progressive Move.
Everyone who contributed to the oiling of Vandalla road as far as the entrance of the park should be proud of having a part in such an undertaking, the benefits of which so many people can enjoy as they travel to Nichols park.

The Good Roads Movement.
Attractions and agitations means the education of the people for desiring good roads. The Griggsville good roads meeting showed the real reasons from towns west of the river were in evidence. The city of Hannibal sent thirty cars, which showed their interest for good through roads. Hannibal has been a leader in the propaganda for good roads, and its people attend these good roads meetings because they know such agitation and enthusiasm succeeds. The people of Morgan county are awakening to the fact that if we are ever going to have good roads we cannot have a few to do all the boasting.

"A demagogue, my son, is a man," said father, "who can rock the boat himself and persuade everybody that there's a terrible storm at sea."

H. M. Waite, City Manager of Dayton, Ohio.

"We often hear that the city manager is nothing more than a 'boss,' or centralized power. This may be true to a certain extent, but the conditions are not comparable, as under the old form of bossism, the 'boss' was unassailable—he was unofficial. Under the city manager form, the 'boss' is assailable, because he is official, and under our particular charter in Dayton the city manager is subject to recall.

"The general awakening of the American public to our municipal affairs is, to my mind, one of the best signs we have had, because it means that we are going to start at the bottom and work up. In foreign cities the municipal governments were the original governments which spread into provinces and the provinces into nations. In this country it has been the reverse. It started with our national government and worked into the states and then the cities. Now we are proceeding to build up our municipal governments."

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Misses Marie and Marguerite Corington, of Pine street, gave a hayride to Mayfield's grove Friday evening in honor of Miss Louise Small, of Lincoln, who has been visiting at their home for the past week. Nine couples enjoyed the event. Miss Small expects to return to her home in a few days.

The Missionary society and Willing Workers of Woodson Presbyterian church held an ice cream social on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. William Rook, Saturday night. There was a good attendance and a neat sum was realized. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. A. L. Coleman, Mrs. William Colton, Mrs. William Rook, Mrs. John Hoagland and Mrs. W. C. Russell.

You'll need some luggage for that trip. See Garland & Co. Largest line in the city.

WILL BEGIN BIG SALE.
The Floreth company will inaugurate a big July clearance sale tomorrow and Mr. Floreth has termed it a sale "like your mothers used to know." The prices quoted indicate that the ladies who appreciate real bargains in millinery and dry goods will buy once and then "come back." This firm can be depended on to back up every advertised price and quality and the sale will afford a great money saving opportunity.

The sale is announced in a special advertisement on page seven, which will be found well worth reading. The stock of the Floreth store represents a wise selection of goods, originally priced low, and now these figures are cut still further. The summer is really just beginning, so that the public has an exceptional buying opportunity.

TEAM RAN AWAY.
Saturday morning a team hitched to the delivery wagon belonging to W. D. Cody, while standing at the corner of South Main and Water streets, became frightened from some unknown cause and started to run. They proceeded in their course through water street to South Main, up that street to the square, around the south and west sides of the square, striking the island light which stands at the junction of West State street. The globes of the light were broken. The harness was torn and the front of the wagon demolished somewhat, but no great damage was done.

The demand for men's straw hats is greater this year than usual. Men wanting a new one to wear on their trip the Fourth should secure it early this week of Frank Byrns' hat store.

How I Produced 12 Pounds of Beef From One Bushel of Corn.

I bought 44 cattle through Milton Marshall & Co., St. Louis, of Henry Wright, they averaged 961 pounds. March 19, 1914 in St. Louis. I put them in dry lots March 27th, fed them all they would clean up in 30 minutes, crushed corn, cob and all then cooked in the 50 bushel size Wood's Grain Softener.

I put them on grass May 25th, they averaged 1290 lbs. when put on grass. While in dry lot I gave each steer 5 lbs. clover hay. After they ate their grain, I kept out straw before them all the time, but they would not eat over one bale of straw per day. I fed at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., at regular hours.

I measured the grain fed with No. 8 scoop, feeding 50 scoops at each feed or 100 scoops per day, all they would clean up. I put in 20 bushels ground cob corn and all into a 50 bushel vat. This will fill it making 50 bushels feed, which makes 4 feeds, all they will clean up. I drew 50 gallons of syrup off and added 50 gallons of water, then added 1 1/2 bushels of ground oats and shorts, with which I am feeding 80 pigs that are doing well.

I will feed the cattle about 30 days longer and would be glad to have any one interested come and see them.

Get the Grape Juice Habit. It Won't Get You

Welch's is the Pure, unfermented juice of the choicest Concord grapes. It contains no preservatives—nothing is added. Sterilization by heat prevents fermentation and the formation of alcohol.

In the first place grape juice is a food. Gluten and grape sugar—the most nutritious kind of sugar—make flesh and muscle; its nitrogenous elements feed the nerves and the brain.

In the second place grape juice is a drink. Men can live a longer time without food than without water. Grape juice supplies a perfectly pure water, sweetened and subtly flavored by nature herself.

In the third place, it's a tonic. It relieves exhaustion and stimulates without reaction.

HEAVY-WEIGHT TITLE

Moran landed with both right and left to Johnson's face which brought a cheer from the crowd.

ROUND SEVEN—Moran landed several hard ones to the negro's head while Johnson got in a hard one to the stomach. Moran landed a stiff left to Johnson's chin. Johnson then rushed Moran to the ropes without damage. Johnson opened with the cut on Moran's nose.

ROUND EIGHT—Johnson followed his old style of fighting on the defensive. He succeeded in putting three uppercuts to the Pittsburgher's jaw. In a clinch Moran pounded Johnson's stomach landing five or six blows and blocked more uppercuts from the negro. Johnson landed a hard right to the jaw. Both fighters did fine work.

ROUND NINE—Moran sent a left hook to the body while Johnson landed one on the head and several hard ones to the jaw. Johnson rushed the fighting somewhat, Moran receiving a left on the jaw.

ROUND TEN—They mixed immediately at the opening of the round. Johnson was successful in the infighting. The referee told the men to break away. Johnson sent one to Moran's nose, Moran's seconds claiming a foul. The blow cut Moran's nose and mouth. The referee warned Johnson while the crowd booed the negro. Hard fighting was resumed. It looked as though Moran was weakening. This was all Johnson's round.

ROUND ELEVEN—Moran landed one on Johnson's head. The negro then rushed the Pittsburgher and received another warning for holding. Moran sent three hard blows to the body, the negro retreating viciously with blows to Moran's jaw.

ROUND TWELVE—Johnson succeeded in landing several uppercuts to the jaw and a straight left to the nose and also over the eye. Moran was breathing hard and did not seem that he would last long. Moran cleverly dodged a hard swing to the jaw.

ROUND THIRTEEN—Moran led but could not land effectively while Johnson sent one to Moran's jaw. The Pittsburgher landed hard on the negro's jaw which drew a cheer from the crowd. Johnson stood back smiling and then sent a hard right to Moran's jaw.

ROUND FOURTEEN—Moran tried hard but unsuccessfully for the negro's jaw. Several of Moran's blows brought smiles from his opponent. Moran ran into a punch on the nose and in making a futile swing at Johnson he ran into the ropes.

ROUND FIFTEEN—Moran avoided the negro who stood still laughing. Moran landed hard to the negro's face while the latter rushed him to the ropes.

ROUND SIXTEEN—Johnson forced the fighting. Moran landed on the stomach and the negro sent a left to Moran's nose. He followed this with five more in lightning succession to the same place. Moran landed two straight lefts to the chin.

ROUND SEVENTEEN—Johnson sent a hard left to the jaw while Moran made a wild swing. Moran then sent a left to the negro's face which seemed to make little impression on his opponent. Moran sent another left to Johnson's face which brought a cheer.

ROUND EIGHTEEN—The negro sent one to the stomach, two to the face, and then a hard left to the body.

ROUND NINETEEN—Moran went after Johnson infighting and holding on all the same time. He did no damage however. His tactics caused adverse comment. Referee Carpenter frequently separating the men.

ROUND TWENTY—They shook hands. Each tried for a knockout. Johnson sent several hard rights to Moran's face. He then landed with left to Moran's head. Moran's head rested on the negro's chest. Moran swung wildly and then Johnson landed frequently and at will. Moran was hanging and tried effectively for the negro's body. The gong then rang and Johnson was declared the winner.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Chicago White Sox have signed Delos Brown, a young infielder. Billy Sullivan, who discovered the youngster, says he looks like a comet.

Calvo, the Cuban outfielder, who was released by the Washington club to Los Angeles, has failed to make good in the Pacific Coast league.

Jack Barry of the Athletics and Shanks of Washington are the class in the big yard when it comes to bunting a runner home on the squeeze play.

With Bedient not in the heat of condition the Red Sox still have a wonderful array of pitching talent in Wood, Leonard, Foster, Collins and Johnson.

Wanamaker, the crack Dartmouth catcher, has another year in college, so it is doubtful if he will accept the offer to sign with the New York Americans.

Wyckoff, the Athletics' sensational pitcher, is now making good the claims of Connie Mack. Conn's held right along that the youngster would prove to be a big league star if given time.

When "Uncle Cy" Young was in the big show he was credited with saying that he would retire before he would go to the minors. But evidently Cy has changed his mind, for he said he has joined a "hush" team.

Bill Sweeney is still a favorite in Boston. On his first trip to the Hub as a member of the Chicago Cubs, Bill's old admirers presented him with a silver tea set and a massive silver serving tray.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF SURGERY HOLDS SECOND CONVOCATION

Dr. Carl E. Black and Dr. E. L. Crouch in Attendance at Meeting Held in Philadelphia.—New Organization Means Much to the Public.

Dr. Carl E. Black and Dr. E. L. Crouch have returned from Philadelphia where they attended a meeting of the American College of Surgery and of the American Medical Association which was held in Atlantic City. The first convocation of the College of Surgery was held in Chicago a year ago when the degree of F. A. C. S. was conferred on one thousand fellows, Dr. Black being among the number. This year at Philadelphia 1100 members were added. The third convocation will be held in Baltimore next November and this will be the last convocation without requiring a rigid examination for entrance.

This college of surgeons is patterned after that of England which has been in existence several hundred years. Its object is to regulate the practice of surgery by getting into one body every surgeon of repute. It will not admit physicians fresh from college; they must in some way show what manner of work they are capable of doing by actually performing the operations themselves. To gain admission to the college means much to the physician, on account of its high standing. The new association will mean much also to the public in the way of competent work in surgery.

It is the plan to construct a building in Washington, D. C. and $1,000,000 will be raised by the members for the construction of the building and to make the organization self sustaining. At this building will be found a force of high class officials who will have charge of all examinations for entrance to the organization. The members are planning to raise their million dollars by the time the meeting is held in November.

There are a number of surgeons in Jacksonville who are capable of gaining admission and membership will include also specialists on the eye, ear, nose and throat. Several of the local physicians have been recommended for membership.

Dr. Black, Dr. Crouch and Dr. J. H. Fountain of Chicago were representatives of the Morgan County Medical Society at the meeting of the American Medical Association held at Atlantic City, where over 6,000 physicians assembled.

Clarence Walker of the St. Louis Browns, who has been leading the American league batsmen came from the Kansas City American association team. The Browns gave Compton, Brief, Allison and a sum of one, said to be $12,000, to land Walker.

What has become of the American league's heavy swatters? The American association has 28 men batting for .300 or better, the Federal league has 26, the International league 25 and the National league 20, while the list shows only 8 American leaguers among the .300 hitters.

HEARTS BENEATH THE TINSEL.

Chicago Post: Three blocks out of its way it came. The brass band made its loudest noise and the steam calliope played ragtime under full pressure. From their prancing steeds the beautiful ladies in gay costumes waved their hands and smiled happily—not the professional smile of the tanbark ring, but real human, heart smiles. The Roman soldiers in the armor forgot to look like stern Romans and turned cheerful faces upward. The clowns, in grotesque motley, vied with one another to be funny.

And it was all for one little spectator. A wee pale face was glued against a window pane. Guy Peters, 9 years old, lamed for life by tuberculosis of the hip, laughed and shouted with glee when the circus parade went by his home. Propped up in his bed, he had his "private view." For the kindly folk who spend most of their lives under the "big top" had heard of his eager wish to see them, and the scheduled route had been set aside to give this tiny lad a few minutes of boy paradise.

The incident happened in Litchfield, Minn. Among a hundred items in the day's news with bigger headlines, there is, perhaps, none more important than this, because we need so often and so much to be reminded that beneath life's tinsel beat human hearts.

NEWS FORECASTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, June 27.—Unless the press of business renders his presence in Washington imperative President Wilson will go to Philadelphia at the end of the week to attend the big celebration of Independence day in that city.

Monday is the day fixed for a special election to be held in the third Alabama district to select a congressman to fill out the term of Henry D. Clayton, who recently resigned his seat in the house to accept a position on the federal bench.

The provincial elections will be held in Ontario Monday. The contest is between the present Conservative administration of Sir James Whitney and the Liberal opposition led by Newton W. Rowell.

One of the most drastic prohibition laws ever adopted by any of the states will come into effect Wednesday in West Virginia. The law not only prohibits the manufacture, sale and importation of intoxicating liquors, but forbids the sale of any newspaper or periodicals containing liquor advertisements.

The much discussed order issued by Secretary Daniels last April banning all intoxicating liquors from the American navy will come into force Wednesday.

Marble House, the Newport home of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, is to be the scene Friday of a get together meeting of the woman's suffrage leaders of the United States in an effort to concentrate support for a suffrage measure in congress.

The centennial anniversary of the battle of Horseshoe Bend, in which Gen. Andrew Jackson broke the power of the Creek Indians and saved the great southwest from British domination, will be celebrated Saturday with exercises on the battlefield in Alabama. The governors and official representatives of Alabama and the neighboring states will take part in the celebration.

The hundreds of Norwegian-Americans who have returned to the mother country this summer to attend the festivities in commemoration of the centenary of Norway's independence will hold a big celebration in Christiania Saturday in honor of the Independence day of the United States. The feature of the celebration will be the unveiling of a bust of Lincoln, a gift to the Norwegian nation from Governor Hanna of North Dakota.

Thousands of school teachers from every section of the country will begin to assemble in St. Paul at the end of the week in anticipation of the opening of the annual convention of the National Education association. Other large gatherings of the week will include the international convention of the Baptist Young People's Union, in Kansas City; the international convention of the Epworth league, in Buffalo; the annual meeting of the Catholic Educational association, in Atlantic City; and the annual convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy, in Atlantic City.

Other events of the week of more or less public interest will include the Dominion Day celebration throughout Canada, the consecration of Rev. M. J. Curley as Catholic bishop of St. Augustine, a charter election in Cincinnati, a celebration of the sacerdotal jubilee of Bishop Burke of Albany, and the royal Henley regatta and the British athletic championships, in both of which America will have representatives.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The Texarkana team finished at the top in the first half of the Texas-Oklahoma league season.

Catcher Forrest Cady of the Red Sox has a brother 20 years old who gives promise of developing into an all round player.

Walter Johnson's speedy shoots seem to be soft shell pie for the veteran Sam Crawford, the Detroit killer of fast ones.

Paddy Livingston and Jack Knight, two former well known big leaguers, are cracking out safe ones in the American association this season.

Roy Reeves, the personal representative of President Tener, is taking a swing around the National league circuit in order to give the "up and down" to Tener's umpires.

Jack Leary is doing brilliant work for the Browns. Leary is the likeliest looking first baseman to break into the big show since "Stuffy" McInnis came into the limelight.

Bill Phillips' Indianapolis team has certainly come to the front with a rush in the Federal league race. Bill has about the sweetest bunch of hitters in the Fed circuit.

The eastern contingent of the American league did considerable damage to the pitching staff of the White Sox. And just when the Sox pitchers were touted as an unhittable.

The Boston Braves have released Luque, the Cuban pitcher, to Jersey City of the International league. With Long Branch last season Luque was the wonder of the New York-New Jersey circuit.

PUTTING IN ELEVATOR.

Workmen are busy installing a new elevator at the Pacific hotel. It will be so built as to connect with the basement and for a fourth story, should the management ever see fit to add another story, which is not at all impossible. The new management felt that an elevator was imperative and in no small way will it facilitate the business of the hotel. The new writing room which is being constructed is another feature and several other changes will be made before the remodeling is finished.

COULD WRECK AMERICAN AND NATIONAL LEAGUES

President Gilmore of Federal Leagues Makes Bold Assertion Regarding Major Organizations.

New York, June 27.—"I could wreck the American and National leagues in 48 hours if I signed all the players of these two organizations who have asked to be taken into the Federal league." Thus spoke General Gilmore, commander-in-chief of the Federal league, but he spoke with check for several hundred thousand beans which was to be used as bait for jumping ball tossers.

When Gilmore's bold assertion was repeated to Bancroft Johnson, the major general of organized baseball, the M. G. said: "If there are any of our players who are ready to jump to the Federals I say let them jump, so we may know who they are and rid the sport of men who are in the game for purely mercenary reasons."

That mercenary stuff of Ban's is the goods. It surely will share any of the big leaguers who jump to the Feds, for then we shall know they are willing to play baseball for money. If that sort of thing keeps up it won't be long before the players will be just as eager for the mazuma as the magnates. And then what will become of the grand old game?

If the Federals decide to make any considerable increase in the number of star players now on their payroll it will be for the purpose of crippling the older league and not because the Federals need the players. A few well known players added to the circuit would perhaps boost the gate receipts here and there, but if the Federals continue to stage the air tight pennant race they have been putting up of late they are sure to get the coin with the present line-ups.

From the viewpoint of the fans a real pennant race is one in which every team in the league has a chance to cop the bunting. At the present time the Federals appear better able to furnish a race of this sort than either the National or American league. So why should the new organization load up with expensive players, many of whom have been in fast company a number of years and soon will be ready to take the down grade?

The experience of the American league in the matter of distributing the playing strength should be taken as a lesson by the Federals. When the American league was organized a small number of National leaguers were induced to jump to the new league. With a sprinkling of big league talent among the minor leaguers then in the outfit the American league served up to the fans some of the hottest pennant battles in the history of the game.

Then came the wholesale raid on the National league and soon the American league circuit was clogged with big league stars. A short time later the stars began to fade and the Americans found themselves pretty much in the same fix as the old National league, with a circuit that each season comprised from two to four teams that didn't have even an outside chance for the pennant.

Perhaps the Federals can get away with the star grabbing stunt, but even if they do it's dollars to doughnuts they never will be able to put up a more interesting championship struggle than they are staging right now.

With your Uncle Sam's champion polists, champion golfers and leading college runners taking the count at the hands of our British cousins it begins to look as though John Bull was all set for a clean up in sporting matters this year.

We still have a chance or two left to show some class. These will be furnished by the Henley regatta and the America cup races. If our water wags fail to deliver in these aquatic events it will be "good night" international champions for we'uns.

The Henley regatta, the first of the two international competitions, will take place next week. In the contest for the Grand Challenge cup the United States will be represented by the Boston Boat club crew of Boston and the Harvard 1914 second crew. The Union Boat club crew is considered about as classy a crew as could be formed in this country at the present time. With the exception of one member, who is a former Yale oarsman, the crew is made up entirely of former Harvard oar wielders. The Harvard second crew also is expected to make a good showing, the expectation being based on the crew's recent brilliant victory over Yale.

Lyman J. Gage.

Lyman J. Gage, noted financier and former secretary of the treasury of the United States, was born in Madison county, New York, June 28, 1836, and at the age of nine began his career as office boy in a bank in Oneida. In 1855 he went to Chicago and his first employment in the western metropolis was as a clerk in a planing mill. This he soon gave up to accept a position as clerk in a bank, realizing that the business of finance was his real vocation. From the position of clerk he rose until he became president of the First National bank of Chicago. This position he retained until he became secretary of the treasury in 1897. Mr. Gage remained in the cabinet until 1902. Some years ago Mr. Gage retired from active business and has since made his home in southern California.

Mournful Musings

By WALT MASON.

A few short years of grief and mirth, and we go back to Mother Earth, our play and labor done, no more to struggle or to plan, no more to do our fellow man, or hustle for the mon.

An epitaph upon a stone will tell you where we sleep alone, and other things relate. "As I am now, go you must be, therefore prepare to follow me, and get your shroud on straight." Full soon, my friends, we shall repose, oblivious to human woes and all men's transient schemes; the clamor of the busy street, the thundering of countless feet, will not disturb our dreams. Out in the silent resting place, each gent, in his own packing case, shall wait the judgment dawn; and he's in luck if living men shall mow the weeds now and then, and mourn that he is gone. So why be straining all our days to get the best of other jays, and pile up stacks of pelf? Why scratch so bitterly and hard to get in long green by the yard, why let our god be Self? Oh, let us blow our surplus wealth for others' happiness and health, shell out our miser's heap, and when we die, some day in June, the stores will close all afternoon, to let employees weep.

Purifies Blood With Telling Effect

Gives Conscious Evidence of Its Direct Action.

S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, almost talks as it sweeps its way through the circulation. Its action is so direct that very often in some forms of skin affliction the appearance of the eruptions changes overnight, the itch and redness are gone and recovery begins immediately.

As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming eczema, rash, pimples, and all skin afflictions.

And in regenerating the tissues S. S. S. has a rapid and positive antidotal effect upon all those irritating influences that cause rheumatism, sore throat, weak eyes, loss of weight, thin, pale cheeks, and that weariness of muscle and nerve that is generally experienced as spring fever. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life. S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 534 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who maintain a very efficient Medical Department, where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may write freely for advice and a special book of instruction. S. S. S. is sold everywhere by drug stores, department and general stores, but beware of all substitutes. Do not accept them.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Forty gallons of whiskey exploded in the saloon of Henry Soma at Glen Carbon, a village five miles south of Edwardsville Friday. John Schiller, the bartender, was cut about the face with flying glass, and a physician removed several large pieces from his cheek.

The dates and places for the annual county fairs and race meets of the Southern Illinois Fair Association have been announced as follows: Clay county at Flora, September 7 to 11; Gallatin county, at Shawneetown, August 24 to 29; Jackson county, at Murphysboro, September 1 to 4; Jefferson county at Mount Vernon, September 22 to 26; Johnson county at Vienna, August 18 to 21; Marion county at Centralia, September 15 to 19; Perry county at Pinckneyville, September 22 to 25; Randolph county at Sparta, September 29 to October 3; Saline county at Harrisburg, September 1 to 5; Union county at Anna, August 25 to 28; White county at Carmi, September 1 to 5; Williamson county at Marion, September 8 to 11.

State fish and game commission members Friday prepared to send a carload of fish from the fisheries at Havana to Macoupin county. A large quantity of bass and ring perch will be shipped to Carlinville, for disposition in Macoupin creek, within the grounds of the Carlinville Country club. Other shipments will be made to Thayer and to the grounds of the new state hospital for the insane at Alton.

In Taylorville beginning Saturday, you cannot:
Give a drink to a friend or receive one from him.
Keep liquor in your own home or in your club.
Hold a keg party.
Rent any building for purposes of liquor drinking.
Display any liquor sign, place or carry any liquor ad in any newspaper.

You can:
When alone drink liquor which you yourself have received by common carrier shipment from some point outside the city.
Common carriers may deliver such goods, but must keep record of quantities, date of delivery and consignee, which record shall always be open to inspection by police officials.

The Rev. Rozell Monroe Barnes, boyhood friend of Ulysses S. Grant, is dead at his home in Denver, Colo. Dr. Barnes came to Denver twenty five years ago. He was born Aug. 29, 1839, at Wooster, Ohio. As a boy he attended the school attended by Grant. After the Civil War Dr. Barnes was pastor of leading Methodist churches in Indianapolis, Springfield, Bloomington, Danville, Clinton and Jacksonville, Ill.

Fidelity, a progressive little village in the center of a rich farming community east of Jerseyville, is again on the map. About three months ago the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad, closed its station there, but the road has just reopened its Fidelity station, granting patrons their former privileges and appointing James Hauskins agent.

The matter was taken up with the Public Utilities Board. The closing was made for reasons of economy, but it no doubt proved a costly experiment, as the Fidelity citizens declared a boycott and directed all their shipments over other lines.

The night office at Medora also has been reopened.

JUBILEE OF BISHOP BURKE
Albany, N. Y., June 27.—The celebration of the golden jubilee of Bishop Burke, for which the clergy and laity of the Catholic diocese of Albany have been preparing for many months, will begin tomorrow and continue through next Tuesday. The observance will be ushered in with a great parade tomorrow afternoon. Thousands of representatives of the different parishes of the diocese will march through the principal streets to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, from the steps of which they will receive the benediction of the bishop. The parade promises to be the largest affair of its kind ever seen in Albany. Special trains have been engaged to bring delegations from Utica, Amsterdam, Troy, Schenectady, Saratoga and other principal cities of the diocese. Some of these delegations, according to the reports received here today, will include as many as 5,000 persons.

The celebration is in honor of Bishop Burke's 59th anniversary as a priest and the 20th anniversary of his consecration as bishop. He was ordained to the priesthood June 30, 1864, and assigned as an assistant at St. John's church in this city. In 1887 he became vicar general of the diocese and on July 1, 1894, he was consecrated bishop in succession to the late Bishop McNeirney.

COMPLAINS BECAUSE WELLS ARE LONG DRY.
A resident of North Main street claims that wells in that locality have begun to go dry since pumping was resumed at the Widenham and Daub wells, and has written the Journal as follows:
Editor Journal:

I wish to have something published in the Journal in regard to the Widenham-Daub wells. I can't get it drawn up as it should be, but thought I could give you a few pointers and you could arrange it for publication. I want to speak in behalf of North East citizens who I am one. When those wells are pumped full force, our wells begin failing and it's just a question of time (and a short time too) until they are dry. It makes it hard for us as we are not (many of us) able to buy water and even if we were, there is no city water main near us. As for myself I have no elstern, and use well water for everything. Those that have cisterns are not getting much benefit from them as it's been so dry all summer. Why not get part of the city's water from Morgan Lake and let us have a shadow of a chance anyway. It seems to me it's a game of a rob Peter to pay Paul game, and the North East citizens being robbed.
North East Street Resident.

ARE YOU GOING AWAY FOR THE SUMMER?

You will need the Jacksonville Journal and you can have it every day. If possible you will appreciate it even more highly than when you are in the city. It will be better than a long daily letter from your dearest friend at home. It will keep you in touch with Jacksonville, besides giving you, as always, all the news of all the earth.

Call up the Circulation Department, either phone, 64. Or if convenient to you and to prevent any possible mistake in transmitting telephone message, just mail a post card to The Jacksonville Journal Co., giving both the old and new address, and the change will be promptly made.

Price of Journal to any postoffice in the United States (address changed as often as desired) is ten cents per week.

TO WOMEN WHO OVERDO.
Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty. In order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. Soon a weakness or displacement is brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse. For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved a boon and a blessing to women in this condition, by restoring their systems to a normal healthy condition. Why don't you try it?—ade.

EAGLES VS. ATHENS
AT NICHOLS PARK

The Eagles will tackle the fast Athens bunch at Nichols Park this afternoon at 3 o'clock and a fast game is looked for. This is the first game under the new management of the Eagles and the fans should turn out to give the boys encouragement.

Athens has defeated both Petersburg and Ashland this season and the Eagles are anxious to win their game. The Smokey and Jim Simms and Clark will be the batteries for the Eagles and the line-up of the Eagles will be slightly changed.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

The St. Louis Cardinals tiring of engaging in brawls among themselves, Thursday evening at Pittsburgh started something with the caddies at one of the Smoketown golf links. That something ended up in a free-for-all fight in which four of the St. Louis players were badly mauled. Manager Huggins Friday called the rough necks up on the carpet and handed them all a walloping with his tongue. The Huggins ire is well and good as far as it goes; but a perch upon the bench without pay would be more effective. The four players engaged in this latest display of rowdism have been mixed up in all of the dirty work pulled by the St. Louis Nationals this season. There is a way to stop that kind of work and it should be enforced against St. Louis. Those Cardinals, most of them, act as if they were playing under Federal league contracts—they are the hooligans of organized baseball.

All that talk concerning Ty Cobb and the Federal league is bunk, according to Frank Navin, president of the Detroit club. Ty is chafing under the disgrace he brought upon himself one week ago last night, and is anxious to get back in the game to prove that the affair was a mistake of the head only. To farther prove his loyalty to the Tigers, Navin says Cobb has signed a two years' contract when he could have merely signed for one and awaited developments in the Federal league. If all that Frank Navin says is true, there are quite a few eligibles for T. R.'s Ananias club.

"Australian" James Kelly, who sixty years ago was one of the toughest heavyweight fighters in the world, is dead at Matawan, N. J. He passed away Wednesday night, aged 92, and the old warrior's end was a peaceful one, his bedside being surrounded by the very best citizens of the quiet little New Jersey hamlet. Kelly in 1848 won the Australian championship and shortly afterward he came to this country. One of his battles near Melbourne went a distance of 101 rounds.

Abe Attel will not "comeback" July 4th at Evansville, Ind. The little Hebrew ex-bantam champion has called off his bout with Chick Hayes, owing to injuries received while in training.

That polo tournament at Kansas City is one of the jokes of the season. To be true, there is some fair material in competition, but on the whole the games run second to ping pong. Take the game on Friday as a sample. St. Louis defeated Denver by 9 to 7, on the face of the score card, but a glance at the score as tabulated reveals another story. The St. Louis team scored 9 goals, 0 fouls and 0 safeties. The Denver team scored 4 goals, 0 fouls and 0 safeties. W. B. Huston is charged with 1 safety, which, figured with a handicap of 4 goals, left Denver a count of 7.

The recent Yale-Harvard regatta promises to become the scandal of the century. Yale after the judges' decision went wild in the City of Elms. The ginks among the sophomores and freshmen started on a rampage and "tore loose" with a vengeance. Old Bell dock, Bridge street, Forbes place, Collis, Wallace, Chapel and Church streets and the Old Green were strewn with wreckage after these fanatics had tired of their madness. Now comes along the moving pictures of the race and the camera shows that Harvard crossed the tape more than half a boat length in front of the blue. The judges are adamant and will stand by their decision, a stand that will result in relations anything but amicable among these two colleges. It also will surround with suspicion all future regattas.

Short Jaunts for Little Money in Glacier National Park

I want to send you a folder about this wonderful region. I want every family in the country to realize that it is possible without great expense, to go to the American Alps and spend a few delightful weeks there, trout fishing and taking little trips on foot, or in automobiles or on horseback or by boat, which cost only from $1 to $5 per day.

When people fully understand what this country offers them in Glacier National Park of Montana, many more hotels and picturesque chalets will have to be built there to accommodate visitors. I tell you the combinations of high mountains, great chasms, mysterious glaciers, those moving rivers of solid ice and with all the health giving climate, the wonderful invigorating air, is a gracious gift that is being offered by nature to all those who will take the trouble to inquire and find out if a trip to Glacier National Park is a possible thing for them.

Let me give you complete information, and give you a copy of the Glacier Park folder, a map of the park and some other interesting illustrated booklets, and tell you about the luxurious "Oriental Limited" and Great Northern Express—the only trains that run through to Glacier National Park.

The Survival of the Fittest

Never since the beginning of the automobile industry has there been such a determined insistence on genuine motor car value as there is at the present time. The Reo Motor Car Co., has built into THE REO since the very first model a quality which has always been recognized as the utmost in automobile practice and engineering.

REO THE FIFTH is the development of this foresight and sound policy and now stands the greatest of all light four cylinder cars.

The public is now educated to appreciate quality and reputation in a motor car just as in any other commodity, and the inevitable has happened—the demand has settled upon a motor car with a reputation, experience and stability behind it. The day of the makeshift is over.

The popularity of the REO this year is a natural outgrowth of this insistent demand for quality. Now that the time has arrived when motor car purchases are made on merit alone, REO THE FIFTH has been fittingly and deservedly acclaimed the greatest light four cylinder car ever produced.

WILMERING AN ASSET TO ARMY

NOTED STALLION WAS BRED IN JACKSONVILLE.

His Dam was By Motor (2:29 1/4)
Owned by F. M. Morton of this City
—C. K. G. Billings Makes Gift to United States To Be Used as a Sire of Cavalry Remounts.

Wilmering, the famous trotting stallion with a record of 2:12 1/4, which has recently been presented to the United States government to be used as a sire of cavalry remounts, is an Illinois product, its dam being Motor, owned by F. M. Morton of this city, where the animal was bred. J. L. Hervey writing in the Record-Herald of Wilmering has the following to say:

Announcement was made last week that C. K. G. Billings has presented the trotting stallion Wilmering (2:12 1/4) to the United States government's bureau of animal industry, and that under its auspices the horse would be sent to the government breeding farm at Fort Collins, Colo., and there used as a sire of cavalry remounts.

Wilmering was purchased by Mr. Billings about three years ago and added by him to his wonderful stable of fast record trotting saddle horses. As the officers of the English army are as a rule mounted on the best horses procurable, and horses which are very largely of thoroughbred blood, I have always regarded this as a very significant tribute to the possibilities of the standard bred trotter as a saddle animal. In the words of the old saw, "It speaks volumes."

No Cause for Alarm.

There is absolutely no cause for alarm so far as our resources for breeding cavalry remounts are concerned as long as the country is in possession of thousands of standard bred trotting stallions and tens of thousands of standard bred mares and fillies. They are more than capable of filling all demands of the kind if they are judiciously used.

Aside from Wilmering the bureau of animal industry now has a number of high bred trotting sires, mostly with fast records and of high standard of individuality. These are being used by the breeding farms and their progeny will form the foundation of what in years to come cannot help proving an equine asset of the greatest value. So there is no cause whatever for alarm regarding our cavalry remounts. We have ample material at hand wherewith to produce the world's best. It is merely a question of its intelligent utilization.

ILLINOIS SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL

Commemorate Valor of Men Who Fought and Fell at the Charge Upon Kenesaw Mountain.

Marion, Ga., June 27.—In the presence of a representative assembly, including veterans of both the union and confederate armies, a monument commemorating the valor of the soldiers of Illinois who fought and fell in the charge of Kenesaw Mountain was dedicated on the scene of the conflict today. The date was appropriately chosen, this being the 50th anniversary of the historic battle.

The memorial was erected on a provision of the Illinois legislature. Governor Dunne of that state and his staff and a delegation of citizens who served in Illinois regiments during the war were present. J. B. Shawgo of Quincy, Ill., chairman of the monument commission, delivered the opening address and Governor Dunne made the oration of the day. The monument was unveiled by Sarah Fidelity of Anderson, Ind., the 11-year-old granddaughter of William A. Peyton, a member of the monument commission.

The monument is an imposing structure of gray granite 26 feet in height and at the lower base 18 feet square. The shaft proper is nine feet square. A striking feature of the memorial is the statue at the base of the shaft. This consists of three figures in life size. In the center is the statue of a soldier at parade rest. On one side is a figure representing Illinois holding the coat of arms of the state. The figure on the opposite side denotes "Peace." The soldier stands nearly seven feet in height, while the others are six feet.

The monument is located upon an incline at Cheatham Hill, about three miles from Kenesaw Mountain and about four miles from this city. It is approached from the main road in front of two flights of marble steps. The monument itself is set upon a terrace constructed of marble and the terrace itself has a floor of marble.

The charge upon Kenesaw Mountain was made by union soldiers June 27, 1864. Under a raking fire from the strongly entrenched confederates on the crest of the mountain, the union soldiers built breastworks and from this point of vantage fought on until the following Saturday, when the confederates evacuated the position. Of the union forces, 408 men were killed in the charge. Two of these were Colonel Dan McCook and Colonel O. F. Harmon.

A famous historian wrote of this battle: "If ever a battle was fought in the history of the world, which deserves to be remembered, it was that of Kenesaw Mountain. If ever men deserved monuments erected to their memory, the men who died at Kenesaw are entitled."

COMMIES SHUTOUT BLOOMERS IN FAST GAME

Although Marks Holds Decatur to Five Scattered Hits He Loses By Teammate's Error—Other Games.

Bloomington, June 27.—Marks lost another hard luck game today after he had held the Commies to five scattered hits, when Craig fumbled a ground ball in center field and let home Blitz with the only run of the game. The score:

Club: R. H. E.
Bloomington 000 000 000—0 9 1
Decatur . . . 000 000 001—1 5 2
Batteries—Marks and Keupper; Vrebbahn and O'Brien.

Danville 2; Peoria 1.
Danville, Ills., June 27.—After holding Peoria to one hit Pitcher Walsh doubled in the ninth inning—his fourth hit—and scored the winning run on Falk's single.

The game was featured by the lightning triple play by Peoria in the fifth, which kept the score down. The score:

Club: R. H. E.
Danville . . . 000 000 101—2 11 3
Peoria . . . 001 000 000—1 1 1
Batteries—Walsh and Erloff; Akers and Yelle.

Springfield 6; Davenport 4.
Davenport, Iowa, June 27.—Springfield scored five runs in the first inning after the side should have been retired and the lead was too much for Davenport to overcome, Springfield winning 6 to 4.

Lelivelt pitched effective ball except in the third when three hits and an error netted four tallies. The score:

Club: R. H. E.
Davenport . . . 004 000 000—4 4 3
Springfield . . . 510 000 000—6 9 1
Batteries—Hendrix and Simpson; Lelivelt and Jacobs.

Dubuque 6; Quincy 5.
Dubuque, Iowa, June 27.—The scrappiest game of the season on the home grounds was won by Dubuque in ten innings today, 6 to 5. The hitting of Rowan who drove in four of Dubuque's six runs was a feature. The score:

Quincy . . . 012 100 010 0—5 11 0
Dubuque . . . 010 020 200 1—6 11 4
Batteries—Miller, Tretter and Burns; Flannigan, Gregg and Hamerschmidt.

FEAR HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE FROM VIOLENT EARTHQUAKE

Quake Rocks Southern Portion of the Island of Sumatra—Wire Communication Cut Off.

Batavia, Java, June 26.—Fears are felt here that heavy loss of life attended a violent earthquake that rocked the southern portion of the island of Sumatra today. Wire communication that was cut off at the time of the quake has not been restored and details of the disaster are lacking. Reports reaching here, however, say many were killed and injured and that heavy property damage was done. The center of the shock was said to be at Benkoelen, the capital and largest city of Sumatra.

Up to a late hour no reports had come from the British emigrant steamer Kintuck, which was said to be in the region affected by the quake, and fears were expressed that the steamer had been wrecked by the disturbance.

MRS. ARMSTRONG WROTE FAMILY HISTORY IN HOMELY RHYME

Sister of the late Jacob Strawn in Sketches Tells of Early Life in Three States.—Book Among Relongings of Julius Strawn.

Among the effects of the late Julius Strawn his brother Gates Strawn recently came upon a book of "Sketches From the Life of Elsie Strawn Armstrong". It was penned many years ago by Mrs. Armstrong who was a sister of the late Jacob Strawn and subsequently some member of the family had it typewritten and bound. There are seventy-five pages and the book is neatly bound in green cloth.

Mrs. Armstrong was born in Pennsylvania, after her marriage lived in Ohio and subsequently to a not wholly happy married life came with her children to Illinois where her brother, the late Jacob Strawn, had become known as the "Cattle King" of the west. The work in rhymes tells frankly of the every day life of her family and the narrative is of great interest to her descendants and to those of her brother because it gives in minute detail facts about their lives. In printed form the "sketches" would occupy three solid pages and it is therefore impracticable to give it newspaper space.

However the introductory pages give an idea as to the intent of the writer and indicate the general style of the homely narrative. The prologue and a portion of chapter one are printed herewith:

Sketches of My Life.

A book I bought for my son Perry, when a school boy and as I found it this morning, lying on my table, I thought I would try to scribble down a brief recital of the labors of my childhood, for the amusement of my grand-children and great-grand-children. In the year of Eighteen Hundred and Fifty Six, I was severely afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, more especially in my right hand and right eye. My hand soon recovered, but my eye is still very sore, so I cannot see to work, but with a large goose quill, that makes a large black mark, I can see to write a part of my time and it is amusement for me. March 28, 1860.

An Apology a Kind of Prologue.
Excuse bad spelling and poor writing. And what is worse, the poor inditing. Both age and blindness plead my cause. We must submit to nature's laws.

I have lived the appointed time of man. The wise man says, "Is but a span". 'Tis but a span, to me it seems so true. For 'twas not long since I was young as you.

A yellow pen was given to me. It marked so fine, I scarce could see. But when I write, a quill I choose. Rather than good for me to use.

And now my little friends, I would give you information Of the work of olden times. And my childhood's occupation.

Chapter One.

When young I did commence upon the stage. My feeble service to the present age; When five and six years old, helped milk the cows While brothers in the field did follow plows.

When seven and eight, commenced the knitting. And by the cradle side I took my knitting. And there I knit the mittens and the stockings. Set close and knit and kept the baby rocking.

At nine and ten I helped to make the hay. And in the meadow helped my pa from day to day. And, O, how pleased I was to hear him say: "Wife, can you spare the little girl today?"

How well I loved to work with my dear father. And many happy days we spent together. He was so pleasant, cheerful and so kind. It always cheered and feasted my young mind.

And then I would go and help to haul the hay. To load the wagon and to mow away. And when I'd build the load high in the air, He'd say, "My little girl, you're done, come here."

"Now come to me, don't be afraid. You shall not fall," my father said. I would fix and slide into his hand. And soon upon the ground beside him stand.

Sometimes he'd kiss me, and to me would say. "My little girl, you have done well today. You've built a pretty, square and well formed load." Then straightway to the barn, we'd take the road. Then in the mow to me he'd pitch the hay. And I would pitch and mow the hay away.

Sometimes I carried sheaves, helped shock the grain. And thus by honest work, we gathered grain. I would weed and hoe and tend mother's garden. Helped spin the wool and do the carding.

And when the wool was carded and all spun. And sized and spooled and warped and all was done. Then I rose early, fed young geese and chickens. And did the morning work about the kitchen.

And then away to weaving I would hie,

And bang the loom and make the shuttle fly. And then at night, my father would come in. To tell him what I'd done, I'd thus begin,

And when the spring began to break, we made the sugar for the cake. And 'twas to me a pleasant play, to help at that from day to day. We had a good, kind trusty mare, that I could catch, put in the car. Then take the barrel, pail and tunnel, likewise the gourd to fill the barrel.

And lead the mare from tree to tree, and dip it clean as you may see. And when I got the barrel full, to go to camp, it was the rule. In day time, mother boiled the kettle, at night my father chopped and whittled. And thus prepared the next day's wood, and mother boiled the kettles good.

And there she sat a sewing, or knit with all her might. And she kept a good outlook, that the work was going right. And all the little craft that could do any work, Were pretty well kept to it and got little chance to shirk.

"Besides my chores I wove nine yards today." "Well done my little girl," my father'd say. His smiles and words did much increase my joys. To hear him say, "You have earned more than I and all my boys."

And when the cloth was wove, 'twas sent for to be dressed. And for myself and mother, 'twas only secured and pressed. But for my father and my brothers, 'twas differently dressed. For them 'twas fulled and colored, and also sheared and pressed.

And when the cloth came home, we tried our skill at making. We cut and fit and sewed, 'twas quite an undertaking. 'Till every man and mother's son, had a new suit when frost begun. The winter we put in so good, in a warm house with lots of wood. No matter if 'twas rain or snow, we spun the flax and spun the tow.

And thus fine lots of sugar we did make. Sometimes we made it crumb and sometimes cake. And then we made molasses very nice. To eat on pancake or on bread a slice.

At straining of the syrup and sugaring off, she piled her hand. And off at the camp, her work was in demand. She kept a sharp outlook that all the work went on. Her presence was the axle that business turned upon.

Where she was most needed, there she was most seen. And superior woman, my mother sure has been. The next thing to be done was weave the linen. That through the winter we all had been spinning.

Web, after web I wove, till all was done. And all the flax and tow, that we had spun. And more than fifty years ago, a pleasant sight was seen: Three hundred yards of linen, lay bleaching on the green. (She kept spinning girls in winter.) When I was, wool up stairs a spinning, my mother would call to me. And say, "Now wet the linen, if 'tis dry, how go and see." She would say, "Now do be careful and wet it every bit. And leave no little dry spot, the water does not hit."

Our whitening 'pot was beautiful, 'twas made so nice of tin. Two handles, spout and nozzle, through which the water'd spin. And it had a hundred little holes, where the water would spin out. And fly in all directions and wet it all about.

And when the cloth was bleached and made so nice and white, 'Twas then we had the shirts and sheets and pillow cases right. And then we had the table cloths, and napkins nice and white. And then we had the aprons and towels about right.

And then we had the curtains to hang about our bed. And beautiful they were indeed, and painted blue and red. And likewise the snow white counterpane, the double coverlet. How delighted then was I, to rest my childish head. Our dresses and our handkerchiefs nearly all were made at home. The clothing of the family, the product of the loom. And in those days, our ladies' dresses in flax, wool or cotton. And little thought or cared about the velvet, silk or satin.

And when we left our parents, we had every one a farm. And horses, sheep and cattle, that we might be fed and warm. But now those blessed parents have gone to their reward. And they are resting from their labors and we trust they died in the Lord.

Their works do follow them and their children shall be fed. And they shall not be forsaken, nor their seed begging bread. And now, my precious children, I have wrote some rustic rhymes. In order to inform you of the work of olden times.

When your grandma and a child among the Pennsylvania hills. The stony spots and ravines and lots of little rills.

THEN and NOW

JUNE 28, 1914.

Fifty years ago today the first college in the world to offer collegiate education with honorary degrees to deaf mutes was publicly inaugurated at Washington, D. C. It was on this same day that the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon the deaf and dumb artist, John Carlin. This was the first degree conferred by the college and is said to be the first granted a deaf mute in the world's history. It bore the signature of Abraham Lincoln, the ex-officio patron of the college according to the act of congress, which established the institution. The college was given the name of the "National Deaf Mute College." It possessed two little brick buildings, neither of which had cost more than $9,000. One was built by an appropriation from congress, and the other at the expense of Amos Kendall, who seven years before had founded the Columbia Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, out of which the college grew. Among the speakers of the day was the 27-year-old college president, Dr. Edward Miner Gallaudet. He was the son of Thomas mas H. Gallaudet, who was the "founder of the education of deaf mutes in America." The college opened with seven students, "one fully matriculated and six preparatory." The faculty consisted of one professor besides the college president.

Today the $9,000 deaf mutes in the United States, have recourse to more than 100 institutions at which education of deaf mutes is made a specialty. The pioneer college at Washington, however, still remains the only college in the world for deaf mutes. Its name is now "Gallaudet College," having been changed to perpetuate the memory of Thomas H. Gallaudet, the pioneer. It is now located on an 100 acre campus known as Kendall Green. On this commencement thirteen professors make up the faculty that is instructing the 111 students of both sexes. The graduates from this college, as well as those of the public and private deaf mute schools of the country are earning their livelihoods in more than 100 different trades, professions, industries and lines of business. There are scores of deaf mute ministers and instructors in all states of the union. One is practicing as a lawyer before the United States supreme court. A deaf mute conducted the defense in a famous murder case in a New York court. Several mutes are acting as editors and newspaper staffs; some are earning excellent salaries and commissions as traveling salesmen and insurance agents; one has achieved fame as a sculptor, while another is capably filling the position as bank cashier. They have entered the ranks of professional athletics—one became famous as a star baseball pitcher in a major league.

There were a dozen springs on so small a farm as that. Not quite two hundred acres, but little of it flat.

But I do love Pennsylvania, I love its springs and hills, I love its fruits and nuts and many more good things. I love its good inhabitants, so honest, frank and kind. There were many noble hearts there, still imprinted on my mind.

I do love Pennsylvania, it is the place that gave me birth. I love it still the best of any place on earth. And still I have some specimens of what we used to do. And if you want to see them, call in and I'll show you.

I have some sheets and counterpanes and double coverlets. The table cloths and towels and curtains for my beds. The dresses and the aprons and the handkerchiefs for my neck. All the good old home spun, in which I still can deck.

TO ELECT CLAYTON'S SUCCESSOR
Montgomery, Ala., June 27.—A special election will be held in the Third congressional district of Alabama on Monday to select a successor to Henry D. Clayton, who recently resigned his seat in the house to accept a position on the federal bench. W. O. Mulkey and Joseph J. Soreight are contesting for the place. The successful candidate will serve only until next March.

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently,—does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

Take advantage of it frequently. Bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

LITTLE TRADING ON STOCK EXCHANGE; STRONG UNDERTONE

Listless Movement In Stocks
Shows Doubt as to Possible
Action of the Market

LIST IS TECHNICALLY STRONG

NEW YORK, June 27.—The stock market fell into the doldrums today.
Business during the two hour session amounted to about 70,000 shares. The listless movement showed doubt as to the possible action of the market.
Technically the market denoted a strong undertone. Apart from Washington dispatches suggesting further indefinite delay in the handling down of the eastern freight rate decision, the day was devoid of any important news bearing upon the financial situation. Some more railway statements for May were presented, but they were calculated to arouse enthusiasm showing general losses in net earnings. Advances from leading mercantile trade centers were moderately optimistic, with indications, however, that merchants were pursuing their established policy of cautious buying. Actual cash loss of the clearing house banks was much in excess of all estimates, aggregating $12,000,000, which is a trifle more than the week's gold withdrawals.

GENERALLY SATISFACTORY

Beef Cattle Show Some Improvement—Prices for Stockers and Feeders Lower.

In reviewing the Chicago livestock market for the past week Alexander, Ward & Conover have the following to say:

Beef Cattle—Cattle Market better again this week. Receipts the opening day were 12,300, and the market ruled steady to 10c higher. Four different lots of heavy cattle reached $9.40. Wednesday's supply was 14,200 and the market steady to firm. Heavy cattle in light supply and nothing offered as good as Monday. Something of fine quality and finish would have reached $9.60. We sold the top cattle for the day, 36 head of westerns, average 1,361 pounds, at $9.35, belonging to Alva Ouren of Treynor, Iowa. Thursday's receipts were 4,623 and the market steady to strong, while with an estimate of 1,000 Friday the demand was good and prices fully steady.

As compared with two weeks ago, prices are 35¢ to 50¢ higher, with cattle between $8.35 and $9.00 showing the greatest advance.

Light receipts are bound to predominate in the future, and a number of wagers have been made here that there will be 10c cattle before the 1st of August. So far as we are concerned, we can see no danger in holding cattle that need a little more finish.

Stockers and Feeders—Receipts during the week have been of very fair proportions for this time of the year and demand light. Prices are generally on a 15¢ to 25¢ lower basis as compared with Monday, with little light, thin stuff in poor demand, showing the greatest decline. If you are in the market for this class of stuff we think this a good time to buy.

Butcher Stuff—The butcher market is closing strong to 10c higher on good to prime cows and heifers. Medium and common cows 15c lower. Canners are selling steady with a week ago, as very few have been offered. The packers have been getting a very liberal supply of Texas cattle at the river markets and this has helped hold the cow market down, as receipts have been light here.

Light bulls are selling fully 25c lower for the week. Heavy hogs 15c lower, with good bulls fully steady.

The calf market 50c lower on vealers, with heavy calves 25c lower. We look for a steady market the coming week on butcher stuff that has had some grain.

Native Beef Cattle—Inferior to rough steers, $ 7.35 @ $7.60.

Common to plain steers, $7.60 @ 7.90.

Plain to medium warmed ups, $7.90 @ 8.25.

Medium to good steers, $8.25 @ 8.75.

Good to choice corn feds, $8.75 @ 9.10.

Good to prime heavy beefs, $9.10 @ 9.40.

Common to fair yearlings, $7.85 @ 8.50.

Canners and Cutters—

Canner bulls, $5.00 @ 5.50.

Canners and Cutters—

Inferior to choice canning cows, $3.50 @ 4.00.

Medium to good canning cows, $4.10 @ 4.30.

Common to fair cutting cows, $4.40 @ 4.65.

Medium to good cutting cows, $4.75 @ 4.90.

Calves—

Common to fair heavy calves, $5.00 @ 6.25.

Good to choice heavy calves, $6.50 @ 7.25.

Poor to fair light calves, $5.50 @ 6.00.

Good to choice vealers, $9.25 @ 9.50.

Choice to prime assorted vealers, $9.50 @ 9.60.

Stockers and Feeders—

Stockers, inferior to common, $6.10 @ 6.60.

Stockers, common to fair mixed, $6.65 @ 7.35.

Feeders, common to fair mixed, $6.85 @ 7.35.

Feeders, fair to good, $7.40 @ 7.70.

Feeders, selected, 850 to 1100 lbs., $7.70 @ 7.90.

Feeding heifers, $6.50 @ 7.10.

Stock heifers, $6.00 @ 6.75.

Stock and feeding bulls, $6.00 @ 6.40.

Stock calves, $7.50 @ 8.00.

Hogs.

There is a decrease in receipts of hogs this week of about 15,000 and aside from last Monday we have had a pretty good market.

The demand has been broader and the demand since Monday has proved that they want the hogs.

Speculators were a little over-anxious today and bought hogs a little too high, paying as high as $8.45 for choice butchers, while the bulk of the good hogs sold around $8.35 after the market settled down. There is a slightly wider range in values, and it will no doubt broaden out still further.

Hogs are selling at a pretty good figure, and from the best information we can get there are none too many matured hogs on hand.

There appears to be a good pig crop and many signs of cholera.

We wish to impress upon hog feeders the advantages of the Chicago market, especially during the hot weather. Many of the platforms have water fountains, where hot hogs can be cooled. We have plenty room to yard hogs and an over-abundance of clear, cool water; all of which counts in the long run. We also have the world's leading market and set the price every day for other markets to follow.

—TO KEEP THE HOUSE COOL—

Some Hints for Hot Days—Solves Big Problem for the Housewife.

How to keep the house cool in summer is a problem for the housewife. Keeping the windows open does not always mean coolness, because if the air comes from the wrong direction it is probably much hotter than the air actually in the house.

A good plan in general seems to be to air the house completely in the morning before the sun has made itself uncomfortably felt. Next, close tight all the blinds on the side of the house which the sun next reaches. That is, close the house on the eastern side in the morning, leaving the western windows open to let in as much air as possible. Then, as the sun moves further over, close the western side of the house with shades, and open the eastern side, which is now cooler and in the shade.

By five o'clock in the afternoon, or about that time, depending on the locality, all the blinds can generally be raised and the entire house given a thorough ventilation before the evening meal.

The general effect of coolness, as has often been said, will be greatly increased by having a few articles in the room as possible. This means laying away bric-a-brac, fancy pillows and all hangings of a heavy nature. Curtains, too, should not be of heavy materials draped to the floor across the entire window. Only simple muslin or thin fabrics at the side of the window alone should be tolerated in summer. The fewer rugs the better. It is wiser and more economical to lay away good rugs during the summer and substitute lighter grass or similar coverings on the floor.

Linen, or a material in linen colors, is by far the coolest for couches, pillows, hangings, etc. The same couch and pillows look hot and uncomfortable in red and green or variegated colors will appear refreshingly attractive when covered with linen.

Bowls of water about the room and flowers or growing plants will also keep the room cooler, as they give out moisture into the air. An electric fan is excellent, if rightly used and placed. Possibly the greatest essential is for the housewife herself to "keep cool," as an irritated temper, nervousness and fussiness on the part of an individual actually seem to make a room hotter and more unpleasant to be in.

Simple Frozen Deserts.

Keeping cool will be greatly facilitated by choosing frozen deserts. Certainly no summer kitchen is complete without a freezer of some sort—either a freezer which turns, or one of the makes in glass, or other kinds which merely require to be packed with the material and placed with salt in the tub.

Making a frozen desert is not as much trouble as baking a cake or pie, and the housewife who wishes to have her family really refreshed by summer menus is coming to this point of view.

CONTENTSTHAT COLLIER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR WRECK

Contention Is Made Because Wheel of the Storstad Was First Put to Port and Later Changed Without Authority.

Quebec, June 26.—Because the wheel of the Storstad was first put to port and later changed without the authority of the officer in charge, Butler Aspinwall, K. C., in his address to the Empress wreck commission this afternoon contended the collier was responsible for the disaster on May 29.

Mr. Aspinwall asked the commission to find that the members of the crew of the Storstad were inaccurate when they claimed the collier did not answer helm. Mr. Aspinwall held that Third Officer Saxe was "the culprit in the case," because the attorney said, he had taken the collier's wheel from the helmsman and put it hard a-port.

MEETING OF ZIONISTS.

Rochester, N. Y., June 27.—Zionists from all parts of the country are gathering here for the 17th annual convention of the Federation of American Zionists, which will meet tomorrow for a three days' session. The indications are that the gathering this year will be larger than usual, many delegates coming from distant parts of the country, including California, Oregon, Texas and Florida. A number of important matters relating to the Zionist movement are scheduled for consideration and action at the convention.

Beginning Wednesday, July 1st at 9 o'clock and lasting until Tuesday night at 6 o'clock, July 13, conforming with our established custom of holding a Semi-Annual Clearance Sale. In order to make this sale the largest and most far reaching of any sale we have ever attempted, we have engaged the services of the T. K. KELLY SALES SYSTEM of New York, Chicago and Minneapolis, recognized as America's foremost bargain givers. Their expert sales manager, Mr. J. E. Thornbury is now here arranging, directing and remarking our entire stock of up to the minute Dry Goods. He has our positive instructions to make such emphatic and radical reductions that a quick and absolute clearance will result. In addition to our actual $20,000.00 stock of dependable merchandise we were the fortunate cash purchasers of splendid lines of seasonable merchandise at the Trade Sales of the manufacturers and jobbers just held in Chicago. The goods were purchased at less than cost of manufacturing and we sell them the same way. Surely this sale presents a GOLDEN MONEY SAVING OPPORTUNITY for the people of Jacksonville and miles around to supply present and future needs at prices seldom attempted and never given in this part of the country. We can only just hint at the great money saving possibilities. The items named are sample bargains. There are hundreds of others just as good, that we have not the space to enumerate.

JUDGE JONES GIVES DECISION IN SCOTT COUNTY PARTITION SUIT

Seventy Acres of the Eighty Involved Go to Grantees of W. G. McLaughlin—Brothers and Sisters of Deceased Get Ten Acres.

Argument in the partition suit which was begun in the Scott county circuit court Friday was finished Saturday morning and Judge Jones rendered a decision favoring the grantees of W. G. McLaughlin. Court was then adjourned.

By this decision B. T. McLaughlin, Frank McDeade and Judge Callans receive seventy of the eighty acres involved in the suit and the other ten acres go to John H. Shibe et al., the brothers and sisters of the late Caroline McLaughlin. The Kelly heirs received no part of the property.

MR. DUNLAP WILL BECOME POST MASTER JULY FIRST

Change Will Be Effective on That Date—Mr. Reeve Leaves Splendid Eight Year Record.

When the Jacksonville postoffice opens for business on Wednesday, July 1st, the institution will be under the management and control of Ralph L. Dunlap who was recently appointed to the position by President Wilson. As previously related the appointment was confirmed by the senate and the commission was duly issued June 22.

The appointment is for 4 years dating from May 28th, and the time intervening between that date and the issuance of the certificate was necessary in arranging all the details as to bond etc. The work of transfer from Postmaster Reeve to Mr. Dunlap will be a matter of but a few minutes' work. Records of the postoffice are kept in such shape that a postmaster can be checked out at most any time without causing any great flurry. Mr. Reeve said yesterday that it would be just like making a quarterly report.

Postmaster Reeve who will retire from office after holding it for eight years can look back upon two terms during which the office has been conducted to the satisfaction of the government and the public at large. During his terms the business of the office has been increased more than 50 percent and in consequence there have also been large additions to the number of employees.

Shortly after Mr. Reeve went into office April 1, 1906, there were seven clerks and eight carriers serving or a total of 15. April 1st, 1914 the number of clerks was 12 and the number of carriers 13. The records show that the total amount of business done during the year ending April 1, 1906, was $25,684.58, and for the year ending April 1, 1914, the business done totaled $52,484.72.

It was shortly after Mr. Reeve went into office that the new building was ready for occupancy and the removal from West State street took place August 1, 1906. The equipment has been added to from time to time and has constantly been kept in high class condition. The additions include two typewriters, an adding machine and a cancelling machine of modern type. During Mr. Reeve's incumbency there have been a number of changes among carriers and clerks and the office lost by death, Mr. Montgomery, of the clerical force, and Mr. Daggett, of the carriers and Assistant Postmaster Harney. During that period too, clerks and carriers have received from the government an increase of pay from $1,000 to $1,200.

When the eight years of Mr. Reeve's incumbency are considered as a whole the figures grow large. During that time the total receipts of the office were $405,802.40 and the total expenses for the period $317,178.72. During this time approximately 72,000,000 pieces of mail have been handled. Records in the money order department show that 170,021 money orders have been issued approximately worth $864,000. The money orders paid were about 98,000 and their value in dollars about $700,000.

These figures indicate in a very clear way what a large business the Jacksonville postoffice does and how the business has increased from year to year.

It has been Mr. Reeve's purpose to increase the efficiency of the office in every way possible and he has sought to secure for the people of Jacksonville all the facilities that the government affords to any city of this size. As a matter of fact there are very few cities of this size where the postoffice remains open all night and in other ways too the Jacksonville service excels that in some other larger places. It has been Mr. Reeve's desire also to secure the best possible treatment for the employees of the office from the government and his relations with the employees have been at all times the most cordial.

He will therefore retire from office leaving a splendid record behind him and can have the satisfaction of knowing that he has had important duties and that they have been well and faithfully performed. There doubtless have been complaints filed during his postmastership but they have in all cases been courteously investigated, so that the public has had good reasons to be satisfied with the postoffice facilities afforded them. Mr. Reeve will at once resume the active practice of law with his associates, Mr. Worthington and Mr. Green. The government allows postmasters 30 days vacation each year but Mr. Reeve has taken only two such periods in his eight years' service.

Mr. Dunlap who is to assume the duties of postmastership but recently received his commission, which bears the signatures of President Wilson and Postmaster Burleson. This handsome document will no doubt have a place on the wall in his office in the postoffice building when he assumes charge next Wednesday. Mr. Dunlap is fully competent for the position and will doubtless continue to give Jacksonville excellent postoffice facilities. His business record has been marked by unflinching courtesy and there is every reason to expect that his policy in the postoffice will be the same as that in his previous business life.
